Who attends the Springfield Clemente Course in the Humanities?

- People who aspire to learn about the richness of the humanities and be engaged in their communities
- Adults without access to a college education who seek an enriching learning experience
- Newly-arrived immigrants interested in new educational opportunities

Requirements

- Be 17 years of age or older
- Have a limited household income
- Be able to read a newspaper in English
- Complete a written application and interview
- Be willing to attend classes consistently, do assignments, and complete the course

How to Apply

- Apply online at: https://forms.gle/Ja5TFVdM1GR8XuQD9
- Or, email Brenda Hill, Clemente Course Site Coordinator, at: theclementecoursespringfield@gmail.com

Martin Luther King Jr. Family Services, Inc.
106 Wilbraham Road
Springfield, Massachusetts 01109
(413) 746-3655
www.mlkjrfamilyservices.org

See Kenza Dekar and other Clemente graduates answer the question, “Why the Humanities?” on the Mass Humanities YouTube channel.
What is the Springfield Clemente Course in the Humanities?

A full scholarship to all admitted students, to obtain two semesters of college-level instruction in five subject areas:

- Art history
- Literature
- Philosophy
- U.S. history
- Writing and critical thinking

- Tuition, books, laptops, internet assistance, childcare, and transportation are provided.
- Earn six transferable college credits.
- Eight months of classes, September through May.
- Classes are held online, Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6:15 to 8:15 p.m.

The Clemente Course reawakened me. I feel a sense of excitement in participating in life again. I don’t want to be ‘not aware’ anymore.

—Angel Gonzalez
Clemente Course graduate

The Springfield Clemente Course in the Humanities is made possible through a community partnership between:

- Mass Humanities
- Bard College
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Family Services, Inc.
- Springfield Museums
- University of Massachusetts Amherst

Funding provided by:

- The Beveridge Family Foundation
- Community Foundation of Western Massachusetts

Apply today!